A cream of tartar baking powder—Highest of all in leavening strength.—

Latest U. S. Gov't Food Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

Established by Government Tests the Standard Baking Powder. The very Giant of leavening agents. Has a larger use than all other cream of tartar baking powders combined.

Prof. HAINES, of Rush Medical College, Consulting Chemist Chicago Board of Health: "I find the Royal Baking Powder superior to all the others in every respect."

Dr. H. A. MOTT, U. S. Government Chemist: "The Royal is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder made."

Prof. PALMER, University of Illinois: "I find Royal Baking Powder invariably composed of wholesome ingredients, entirely free from adulteration or impurities of any kind."

SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF HEALTH: "In our judgment it is impossible to make a purer or stronger baking powder than the Royal."

The N. Y. STATE ANALYST: "The Royal Baking Powder is superior to any other powder which I have examined."

The MINNESOTA STATE CHEMIST: "I consider the Royal one of the best baking powders made."

WISCONSIN FOOD COMMISSIONER: "Royal Baking Powder is of high and uniform strength and quality; its ingredients pure and wholesome."

INDIANA STATE CHEMIST: "Royal Baking Powder is perfectly free from any deleterious or injurious substance."

Avoid all baking powders that require larger cans than the Royal to hold an equal weight. This is sure evidence of their adulteration.

The Coming Man.

A pair of very chubby legs,
Encased in scarlet hose,
A pair of little feet in boots,
With rather doubtful toes,
A little girl, a little coat,
Cut out together close,
And lo! before us stands a state,
The future's coming man!

His eyes perchance will read the stars,
And search their unknown ways,
Perchance the human heart and soul
Will open to their gaze,
Perchance their keen and flashing glance
Will be a nation's light—
Those eyes that are now wistful glint
On some "big game" of fate.

Those hands—those busy hands—
So sticky, small and trim;
Those hands whose mission seems
To pull all order down—
Who knows what latent strength may be
Hidden within their clasps,
Though now 'tis but a trifling stick
In sturdy hold their grasp.

Ah, blessings on those little hands,
Whose work is yet undone,
And blessings on those little feet,
Whose race is yet unrun;
And blessings on the little brain
That has not learned to sit still,
Whatever the future holds in store,
God bless the "coming man!"

Mrs. H. E. Wellman,

No. 2 Linn St., Janesville, Wis., under date of June 16, writes the following: Kenyon & Thomas, sirs: I was confined to my bed four months with inflammation of the right ovary; had a good physician, tried almost everything, got very little help until I tried your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, about four months ago. It has done wonders for me. I can do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe that it will entirely cure me. I am also using your Dr. Hale's Household Tea with good results. Sincerely yours,
Mrs. H. E. Wellman.

This great medicine is for sale at Carpenter's South Side Drug Store.

Solemn Scene in Court.

The Paintsville Paragraph describes this impressive and somewhat novel scene in the Salersville correspondence. W. T. Dinkins, who was arrested on the charge of burning the barn of H. G. Arnett, had his examining trial last week before L. C. Prather, J. P. There were four lawyers on each side, and there were about thirty Commonwealth's witnesses, and every effort was made to convict him, but the court decided that the evidence was not sufficient to hold him over. Upon being released, the accused arose and made a declaration of innocence, and then asked the audience to kneel in prayer with him, which it did. At the conclusion of his prayer almost every one was visibly affected, some shedding tears, and he was congratulated by many. It was an unusually solemn scene, and one long to be remembered by those present.

Is Your Nerve Steady,

Or do you tremble and feel that you are breaking; that your nervous system is giving way. If you have a weak nervous system, the very best thing you can do is to begin to-day using Dr. Hale's Household Tea. It is the finest Nerve Tonic known and will restore you to health and vigor. Don't delay. Get a free sample to-day at Carpenter's South Side Drug Store.

Editor Roundabout:

In your last issue "one oft he boys" approves what I had to say in my last letter about "the boys." I will try and not offend any of them, if it is possible not to do so. I will not tell any of their names, unless it becomes necessary that I should do so, then not with the intention of injuring them, but with the sole object of doing them good. I mean by boys that their names must be called out in school. When a school boy I have been called out in the middle of the floor when I did anything very bad and made to stand on one foot for several minutes at a time. Every time the foot that was held up went to the floor it would get a cut from the tip end of a four foot beech or hickory switch, which was very humiliating on account of having been done before the whole school. "The boys" laughed at me, the girls looking at and feeling sorry for me. I learned in after life why this was done and am convinced it was for my good. The remedy was severe but the good that followed it was certain.

Boys, O do not claim to be perfect. Perfection in any human being outside of Christ was never known on earth. We can attain unto perfection. Try to do right, then if you fall try again. Never let imperfection become a habit with us. As I said in my last habits formed, whether good or bad, generally stay with us, hence the necessity of forming good habits. I have always heard "it was hard to learn an old dog new tricks." The tricks had to be learned while the dog was young. The same idea, or rather the same fact, extends to horses. The owner of a colt who fails to harness him up and train it, that is make it exercise in all the gait, fails to make a first-class horse. The same with children. Now, parents, this is intended for you. When you fail to train in plain English, to make your child walk in the paths of rectitude and virtue—in other words who fail to observe obedience from them in all things—ruin your child. The boys who are keeping late hours and carousing know they are doing wrong. Let me urge you to cut loose from all evil associates—not cut loose next week, next month or next year but right now. This thing of putting off to some future time never amounts to anything. Promises made and broken, and continuously made and broken, there is not much hope for them who do it, but still I hope. The boys who will read this will know how continually I have talked with them. I have never given them up. When a young man loses his honor, fails to keep his word, things are getting mighty threadbare. Honor is everything to man or boy.

A young man promised me voluntarily sometime since he would never drink another drop of liquor. This young man was seen Friday night a week ago in a drunken row with eight or ten others, after midnight. All of them had to be put out of the house they were in by the chief of police, the chief having been called in for the purpose.

The young man spoken of has a splendid position and one redeeming feature in him is I saw him at church Sunday for the first time for several weeks. I hope and pray that he will do as he promised me he would. He is a bright young man and deserves a better life than he is living. I can say this not only of him but of most of the boys.

I saw two accounts last week against two young men, one of them a married young man, from a very questionable source, one for $12 the other $47 in the hands of officers, with instructions if not paid to bring suit on them.

I promised brevity and must close for this time.

Yours truly,
JOHN E. MILES.

In Lexington on the 25th.

Dr. W. L. Kelley, of Cincinnati, will be at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington on Saturday, January 25th, and would be glad to see any of his patients in this city who may desire to go up there to consult him.

Death of Little Sallie Ways.

Little Sallie, the infant daughter of Rev. Willis L. Ways and wife, died at the home of her parents in Louisville on Saturday, and the remains were brought to this city for interment in the family lot in the Cemetery Monday morning.

To Attend the Theatre.

Arrangements are being made between the Kentucky Midland Railway and the managers of the Opera Houses in this city and Paris by which persons living along the line of the road can attend the leading plays in this city and Paris at a small cost.

To Compliment Miss Cox.

Miss Daisy Cox, the accomplished young violinist, has given her services willingly at all of the amateur entertainments given here lately for the various objects, and the amateur musical talent of the city, under the leadership of Prof. Wayland Graham, have determined to tender her a complimentary benefit at some time in the near future, as a substantial token of public appreciation. Miss Cox is endowed with wonderful musical talent, which she is ambitious to improve and develop, and when the entertainment comes off there should be a large audience on hand to encourage the young lady in her laudable ambition. A splendid programme is being arranged for the occasion.

Change of Management.

Mr. W. B. Moody has sold an interest in the Henry County Local to Judge Jas. V. Pearce, and the style of the firm is now Moody & Pearce. Mr. Pearce has long been connected with the paper in the capacity of foreman in the office, and we congratulate him upon becoming one of the proprietors. There are not two more clever gentlemen connected with the press of Kentucky than Will Moody and Jim Pearce, and we wish the Local increased prosperity under the new management.

Wants It Held Up.

Judge William Lindsay, of this city, is in Washington, and it was stated in the daily papers on Thursday that he had requested the officers of the Appointment Department at Washington to hold up his commission as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission until he should call for it. This is thought to mean by some of the Judge's friends that he will yet accept the position, though he has not as yet made known his intentions.

A Level Head.

Mr. Botts, Representative from Shelby county, in an interview published in the Courier-Journal, says: "The farmers are not here to block legislation, nor to attempt any thing radical. We are in favor of liberal appropriations, both for Capitol buildings and a World's Fair exhibit, but we shall insist that the money is expended for the purposes for which it is intended. We don't want to pay for champagne suppers or quail on ice for anybody."

Shake, Squire. You are on the rock. Stay there.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "LaGrippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with Sick Headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at PHIL. CARPENTER'S Drug Store.

Death of Mrs. Norwood.

Mrs. Emily Norwood, widow of the late Chas. Norwood, and mother of Mr. Jos. Norwood, of this city, died at her home in Louisville on Wednesday, and the remains were brought to this city yesterday morning for interment. The funeral took place from the Christian Church.

School-house Burned.

The school-house in district No. 15, this county, known as the "Sheets School-house," was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

Ohio Breeder's Association.

Mr. W. B. Fasig, Pres't of the above Association at Cleveland, writes: "I have known Quinn's Ointment for years, some of its cures have been little short of miraculous. For all enlargements that are just coming on, or of recent origin, it is infallible."

Coming Up.

The recent snows and rains have caused a rise of several feet in the river and drift was running at a lively rate yesterday.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by South Side drug store, 5-17 P. H. CARPENTER.

The Bells Ring Merrily.

The ice and snow upon the streets have caused many a sleigh to be gotten out from the place in which it was stowed several years ago, and the sleigh bells have been merrily jingling for the past two or three days.

Reception.

Mrs. G. T. Blackley received her many lady friends Thursday afternoon from 12 to 2. Saxton's orchestra, of Lexington, furnished the music. From 6 to 8 o'clock in the evening she received her young friends in honor of Miss Eva Hoge.

It Got There.

Who says the goose bone don't know all about the weather? Just look up the predictions we made early in December from the breast bone of Mr. Alfred B. Read's Thanksgiving goose, and see if we did not hit the weather to a gnat's heel.

Filled Their Houses.

The present cold spell has enabled almost all of our citizens who have ice houses to fill them with ice four or five inches thick. The first of the week it was nice and clear but the sleet and snow of Tuesday and Wednesday damaged it somewhat, though the wagons began hauling again on Thursday.

Death of Mr. Church.

Mr. William Church, familiarly known as "Ruplus Bill," one of the most prominent and highly respected citizens of the Pecks Mill precinct, died at his home on Thursday morning, and was buried yesterday afternoon. He was the oldest brother of Messrs. Robert and James Church, who reside on the Owenton pike, three miles from this city.

The Old Original Remedy Leads.

Sick people should not be deceived by pretenders who talk about "Microbi," "germs," "bacilli," &c., to sell their preparations, thus preventing people from buying the original tested medicine. "Radam's Microbe Killer" is what you need. It is now, and for years has been, making more cures than all other remedies combined. Read their advertisement in this paper. Don't be deceived.

A Log Tide.

The rate at which the river was coming up yesterday afternoon indicated that there would be a log tide, and we may soon expect to see a large delegation of Mountain Boys in our city. As most of the mills are idle for want of logs, the arrival of a good lot of rafts would be a welcome sight to the employees of the different lumber firms in the city.

Senator Adams to Speak.

At the next meeting of the Garfield Club, Saturday evening, January 23, Senator Adams, of Somerset, has kindly promised to address the Club, nothing preventing, and it is especially requested that members living out of town be present to hear the Senator's address. Other members of the Legislature have promised to be present. All Republicans visiting Frankfort are cordially invited. Meeting in the Sower building on Main street.

C. A. NELSON, Pres.
W. H. VAN WINKLE, Sec'y.

Joseph Haworth.

On next Thursday and Friday nights Joseph Haworth and his superior supporting company will appear at the Opera House. On Thursday Mr. Haworth's great success, "St. Marc, the Soldier of Fortune," will be presented; on Friday, a double bill consisting of Booth's version of "Ruy Blas" and Gus Thomas' charming curtain raiser, "A man of the World." Mr. Haworth is, during the present week, in Louisville, where he has created a furor. Competent critics say he is destined to be Booth's successor.

OUR VERY BEST PEOPLE

Entertained by their Officers.

The members of Capital Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at the close of the meeting on Monday night, were invited by their newly installed officers to repair to Sower & Ahler's hall, where they found a splendid banquet awaiting them. After supper numerous toasts were given and responses made by the different members of the order and invited guests. Noble Grand Thos. Hunter presided and also acted as toast-master, while Will McEnnis did the slight-of-hand act with the quail on toast. The company sat at the table until nearly twelve o'clock, so highly were they entertained.

Entertained Her Friends.

Miss Stella McEnnis, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. W. W. McEnnis, of Bellepoint, entertained a few of her friends at the above named place on Wednesday evening last. The charming manner in which she received her friends proves her to be the champion of entertainers. All kinds of the latest games were played, and a very sumptuous repast was spread at a late hour, of which all partook heartily. The many friends of Miss Stella returned home, wishing her many happy returns of the day.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning; the signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption? Ask yourself if you can afford, for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves cough and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not neglect it. For lame back, side or chest use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. W. GAYLE. 37

Joseph, the Pure.

GEORGE DARRIS.

The story of Joseph is the most interesting, the most touching and the most wonderful in the Old Testament. It fills the heart with noble emotions, the eyes with pitying tears, the mind with lofty conceptions of life and duty. No young man can study it and not be made better and purer thereby.

His character, so far as the record shows, was absolutely without flaw. And when we reflect that the impartiality with which the Bible paints the faults as well as the virtues of its heroes, we may rest assured that few, if any, demerits marred the lovely character of Joseph. And it was not a mere negative flawlessness either. He was tried by the severest tests possible.

For one thing, he was the favorite child of his old father. Now favoritism among children, while productive of domestic discord and unwise from any standpoint, injures no one so much as the child toward which it is exercised, making and especially rendering him selfish and every way worthless and disagreeable. But if it left any bad results on Joseph, they fell to appear.

From being the indulged and petted child of his father, he suddenly becomes the Egyptian slave. When a fearful change. Then under false accusation of his master's wife, he is flung into a filthy Egyptian dungeon. Thence, after a ten years' imprisonment he is elevated to be Viceroy of Egypt, second only to Pharaoh. Every new experience is a severe test of his character, but his final and unexpected promotion is the severest of all. Very few can stand prosperity and especially sudden prosperity. But Joseph stood it and stood all his trying changes of fortune without betraying at any point either flaw or weakness.

The general qualities of his character, as they stand out before us in his history, are Frankness and Sincerity, Forbearance and Forgiveness, Serenity and Cheerfulness, Faith and Patience, Wisdom and Prudence. How easy to illustrate these from the facts of his life. But I have only time to speak in emphasis of his Personal Purity. I have called him Joseph, the Pure. Much he was. There is no greater charm in any young man than personal purity. And Joseph's purity stood the ordeal of fearful temptation. Repeated exposure and solicitation fail to break it down or even dim its luster. Not one young man in a hundred would have resisted successfully, or have come out unscathed as he did. It demonstrates how clean he was in thought and desire, how strong in his moral integrity and how absolute in his obedience to the dictates of conscience.

Three things mightily aided him in putting aside the temptation to unchastity. One was the fact that his master fully trusted him. And it ought to be a strong inducement to every young man to-day to live a clean life that his family and his friends trust him, that he has their good opinion and that he ought to be ashamed to abuse the confidence thus reposed in him. Joseph was aided also by his own self-respect. He said, "How can I do this great wickedness?" Emphasis on the word "I." "I think too much of myself to descend to such a sin; I respect myself too highly to go down quite that low." And what hope is there for any young man who is destitute of self-respect? How this splendid quality needs cultivation and strengthening among the young men of our own country, in order to guard them against the snares of unchastity which are spread for their feet. Young men, have self-respect and you too will be saved from "this great wickedness."

The third thing which aided Joseph in resisting temptation was the fear of God. It is written that "The fear of the Lord is to hate evil," and it is true. "How can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" was the way Joseph put it. In other words, "I can not thus transgress God's holy law and bring down upon myself his righteous condemnation." And young man, if you have the fear of God before your eyes, neither can you. If you live every day remembering "thou, God, seeest me," it will deter you too from evil, and aid you in maintaining the personal purity which is ever the crown and glory of young manhood.

Meeting of the Police and Fire Commissioners

JANUARY 11th, 1892.

Present Chairman Gault and Commissioners Flynn and Heffner. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Commissioner Heffner moved the police force be increased one man. Adopted. Commissioner Heffner moved that the commission confirm the appointment of J. J. Brislan as chief of police and Lee Cohen as chief of the fire department, which motion was adopted.

Commissioner Heffner moved that the commission go into the election of policemen. Adopted.

The result of the election was as follows: Henry Brown received 3 votes; Mack Phyllian 3; Cad Davis 3; Frank Egbert 3; Pat Corbett 3 and Hub Whittington 3.

The following were elected substitutes: Will Gordon, Pat Collins and Maggoffin Richardson.

Commissioner Heffner moved that the commission go into the election of firemen.

The following were elected: E. H. Taylor, plugman, received 3 votes; Jim Smith, pipeman, 3 votes; Fred Gordon 3 and Harry McEwing 3.

The following runners were elected: Alex Schneider received 3 votes; W. H. Williams 3; S. Gordon 3 and Coley Whitehead 3.

Commissioner Heffner moved that rule 4 governing the fire department be amended so as to strike out the word dismiss and substitute suspend, which motion was adopted.

Commissioner Flynn moved that the clerk notify the chief of police and chief of the fire department of the election of the above persons, which motion was adopted.

Mr. Pat Corbett declined to accept the position, and the Commission met again on Wednesday night and elected Mr. Pat Collins to the position, but when he reported for duty on Thursday night the Mayor would not allow him to be assigned to a beat.

LIFE IN MINING CAMPS.

Less Danger and Less Noise in Them Than in Any of the Large Cities.

There is a fascination about mining life which, once having possessed a man, cannot easily be shaken off. A miner who has made a good stake by selling his locations at first proposes to himself to travel, then to settle down in his own original home; but after a little while he discovers that he himself has changed, that old ties have been broken and that he is disappointed in his former associations. Things at home seem to have inexplicably dwindled. An almost irresistible impulse, a transferred nostalgia, a longing for the clear, bracing mountain air and the liberal ways of the mines then seizes him.

It is difficult to content one's self with the monotonous life of the staid communities after having tasted the more exhilarating one. The attraction of the mines is not all in the hope of gain, though that of course has much to do with it. The friendships formed, the freedom of thought and custom, the spirit of camaraderie, and the entire absence of commercial competition have their influence as well. So numbers of men, having acquired a competence in mining, make their headquarters still in the mining country as a matter of preference, not necessity. Such men are much in the habit of making short trips away, and are to be met with all through the highways and byways of travel. To be able to lead this pleasant, independent life is the dream of the less fortunate ones. Miners are very apt to disparage their calling while they are actively engaged in it; they may term it "a dog's life," but let them come be freed, mark how they hanker after it!

Some people suppose that a mining camp is an unusually dangerous sort of place, full of desperadoes and "hold ups," where every man carries his life in his hands. The popular conception has been handed down from rougher, wilder times, and has been kept alive by the romancing of tenderfoot newspaper correspondents. A man is far safer in a mining camp than on Cherry Hill, New York; Tar Flat, San Francisco, or large areas in any of our cities; much more indeed than in parts of London or Paris. So far as robbery is concerned one is not safe anywhere, in the mountains or in the towns.

As to affairs of other kinds, a man who is sober, minds his own business and does not set up as a fighter would always be let alone. If he does not carry a "gun" so much the better for him, for there is among the roughest characters a certain sense of chivalry, which they would call "squareness," that prevents attack upon an unarmed man. The practice of carrying arms is not at all universal in the mountains. When pistols are worn they are kept out of sight. Indeed, there is not much use to a peaceful man in carrying arms at all.

If he is "held up" by the "road agents" he is always at a disadvantage, being taken unexpectedly, and when they have the drop on him a motion toward the hip pocket would be to take large chances. If the custom, so far as it goes, of carrying weapons may sometimes lead to unpremeditated fatal encounters, it also has the effect of making men quiet and cautious about giving offense.—Albert Williams in Engineering.

A DOMESTIC DIALOGUE.

A Triangular Conversation That Is Familiar in Many Respects to All.

"That's only blood off'n my second little's toe."

"And that?"

"Just where I slud off the barn."

"And this?"

"Dirt."

He is four years old. His mother was getting him ready for bed. He had blue and black and brown bruises all over him. She bent him up and put on his nightgown. He said his prayers. Then he clambered into the chair opposite her. His expression was one of angelic pensiveness.

"Mamma."

"Yes."

"Will you give me a pencil and paper?"

"What do you want them for?"

This was the leading question. He evaded it. "How," he asked, "do you spell Omaha?"

She told him.

"How do you spell policeman?"

She told him that too.

"How do you spell Ora Green and Elihu Green?"

He was answered.

"Can you spell Tommy Benjamin?"

She could, and did.

He was silent. He propped his pink chin in his pink palm and thought the matter over. Finally he drew a long breath and straightened up.

"I thought if I had a piece of paper and a pencil I knowed how to spell every word I would write to Omaha for a policeman to come and 'rest Ora Green an Elihu Green an Tommy Benjamin for frown stones at me, an sayin:—

Ge whizz! Stiggery, bat, Criss cross, caraway rat!"

The patient mother insisted on an adjournment. When he was in bed and his small sister in her cot on the other side of the room, he said:

"Mamma, we are all made out of dirt!"

"Adam was," she hedged.

"Oh," cried the wee girl excitedly; "Jay says God made 'little dirt out of dirt, an den he 'pit on dem! Did he," in righteous wrath, "'pit on dem, mamma?"

Evidently the latter possible fact was more galling than that of construction from clay. "No one knows exactly how God makes anything."

"Can he see in here?" queried Jim.

"Yes."

"If 'twas an iron house, could he?"

"Yes."

"If 'twas an iron house wifout any windows, could he?"

"Yes. Now go to sleep."

Piped the little maid, "Does God make cows?"

"Yes. Now hush!"

"How does he make cows, mamma?"

This the mother was deliberating when Jim spoke.

"Cows!" scornfully. "Cows! God don't make cows. God make calves, and they grow into cows! Don't they, mamma?"

"Yes. Do shut your eyes, both of you, and go to sleep!"

Fifteen minutes passed. Surely she was safe. Surely she might steal down stairs. She rose noiselessly and sneaked to the door.

"Mamma," murmured a drowsy voice.

"Well?"

"How—does—he—make—the—calves?"

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Inserted at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

W. A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JAN. 16, 1892.

A NEW CAPITOL.

A Bill to Appropriate Money to Build One Introduced in the Legislature.

On Tuesday Hon. R. K. Hart, Representative from Fleming county, introduced a bill in the House of Representatives to provide for the erection of a new State Capitol building in this city.

The bill is entitled "An act to create a Board of State-house Commissioners, and to provide for the creation and completion of the Capitol and other necessary public buildings at the seat of government." The bill proposes that this board shall consist of nine members, of which three be ex-officio, the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General. The other six shall be appointed for a term of four years. The board is authorized to employ a Secretary at $1,200 per annum, and architects that may be found necessary. One hundred thousand dollars is first appropriated from the State Treasury, and in addition thereto a tax of ten cents on all taxable property in the State is levied to be used for this purpose alone during the years 1892, 1893 and 1894. It was referred to the Committee on Library and Public Officers of which Mr. Hart is the chairman. As the matter has been thus early brought before the Legislature it is to be hoped that the bill or a similar one will be pushed through at this session.

The amount which would be raised by the special tax proposed, figured upon the assessed valuation for 1891, would be $1,827,040.79 in 3 years, which would give us a Capitol that would be a credit to the State and city.

A Sad Accident.

Mr. Poindexter, of Peak's Mill, tells us he was riding along the pike near Monterey, on Tuesday of last week, when he heard a woman screaming, and looking in the direction of a house, near by he saw a Miss Frayne run out into the road with her clothing from the waist down on fire. He hastened to her relief, but her father and brother reached her first, threw their coats over her and tore the burning clothing from her person, when she fell exhausted to the ground, in a perfectly nude condition. She was borne into the house, where she lingered until the next day, when she died from her injuries. The accident was caused by her attempting to open the door of a red-hot stove when the flames rushed out and set fire to her clothing. She was a bright young lady only seventeen years of age.

Mr. Poindexter says it was the saddest sight he ever witnessed. When her father, nearly crazed with grief, bent over her as she lay upon the ground, she said: "Pa I'm not dead yet," and those were the only words she could utter.

Will Try It Again.

The Lexington syndicate which purchased the grounds of the Kentucky Association and the good will also of the club, for which it paid $95,000, at recent sale, have announced that it will hold its first meeting under the new club, beginning April 30th, and years-olds and aged horses, the continuing nine racing days, to May 10th, inclusive. It proposes to give a series of seven stakes, three for two year-olds, and two each for three and four year-olds, which will not be less than $1,000 to $2,000. It also announces that no purse less than $400 will be offered. It will hold a meeting the 15th of the present month to elect officers and arrange for the dates of closing stakes, which will be about February 10th.

Was Frightened Off.

A thief entered the residence of Judge W. L. Jett, on the corner of Third and Shelby streets, Friday night about 10 o'clock. Judge Jett's little boys were in bed in the next room to the dining room and hearing some one in there the older one called to his sister to know if she was there, and receiving no answer the younger one raised up and looked through the door and saw a man standing by the table. The two little fellows then made an outcry which brought their mother to them, when the man opened a door leading out on the porch and walked out.

District Meeting.

The District Union of the Farmers Alliance for the seventh Congressional district has been called to assemble in Lexington on the 25th and 26th insts.

Resigned.

Mr. Henry C. Murray has resigned the position of Secretary of the Frankfort Athletic Club and has been succeeded by Prof. T. M. Turner, with whom all business connected with the Club will be transacted in future.

The Most Pleasant Way.

Of preventing the grippe, colds, headaches and fevers is to use the liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs, whenever the system needs a gentle, yet effective cleansing. To be benefited one must get the true remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all druggists in 50c. and $1 bottles. 17

Euchre Club.

Mrs. Phil Carpenter and Mrs. W. H. Newhall entertained the Young Ladies Euchre Club Wednesday night at Mrs. Carpenter's residence on the South Side. The prizes were won by Misses Annie Headley and Sallie Holt, and Messrs. John Coleman and Frank Halloran. An elegant supper was served at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Mort Hunley Dead.

Mr. Morton Hunley, for many years a resident of the Forks of Elkhorn, where he ran a wagon making shop, died at his home in Millville, Woodford county, last week, aged 70 years. In 1846 he removed from the Forks to Sangamon county, Illinois, but only remained a few years, returning to this State and locating in Scott county, afterwards removing to Millville.

Where Are They?

Information is wanted with regard to the whereabouts of George Hall, who came to this State from Tazewell county, Virginia, his sons Robert and Jackson Hall, or any other children said George Hall may have had. They are interested in an estate worth $60,000 at Lebanon, Virginia, and if this meets the eye of the above parties they are requested to write V. B. Gilmer, Courts Commissioner, at Lebanon, Va.

A New President.

At the election of directors and officers of the Frankfort National Bank, held on Tuesday, Mr. John Meagher was elected President to succeed Mr. J. S. McKendrick. Mr. McKendrick tendered his resignation on the first of this month but was induced by the board of directors to hold on until the regular annual election, which was held on Tuesday. Mr. McKendrick's reason for retiring was that the confinement was affecting his health, and he wished to go into a business where he would have more out-door exercise.

He and his wife have removed temporarily to New Castle, but they expect to return to Lexington to reside in the near future.

Shot Himself.

Mrs. Fannie Wallace, who lives near Peak's Mill, came to visit her son, Mr. Gibson Graham, who lives at Thorn Hill, a suburb of this city, four days ago, and while at Mr. Graham's residence on Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock, took a loaded shot-gun, raised the hammer of the barrel, placed the muzzle of the gun against her left side, then pressed the trigger with the end of the ramrod and fired the charge into her body, producing instant death. Her mind was evidently unbalanced as she had made a previous attempt to take her life by swallowing a large dose of laudanum. Mrs. Wallace was sixty years of age and leaves a husband and four sons to mourn her loss.

Coroner Dehoney went out Tuesday morning and held an inquest, the jury returning a verdict that Mrs. Wallace came to her death by a gunshot wound inflicted by her own hand.

Curing Cancers.

Mr. J. Mitchell Stephens, formerly of this city, who is now the proprietor of the Windsor Hotel, at Kingman, Kansas, together with his wife and son, has gone into the business of curing cancers. They have formed a corporation under the style of the Boles Cancer Co., and the officers of the corporation are J. M. Stephens, President; Mrs. Ione Stephens, Vice-President; William Walker Stephens, Secretary, and Dr. John D. Boles, treasurer.

A correspondent of the Kansas City Bulletin of Commerce writes his paper in regard to the remedy used by the company as follows:

I have seen reputable persons of unimpeachable integrity, who warmly endorse the cure from personal knowledge; and I have read testimonials from the most prominent people in Lawrence and throughout the country, who have been successfully treated by the Boles remedy, many of whom had been given up by the physicians. The Boles remedy is vegetable, entirely harmless and is applied externally, effected by a poultice, with little or no pain, and very quickly—one application often being sufficient. The length of time required depends upon the progress the disease has made, and the previous treatment of physicians in using the knife.

The same paper contains the following notice of Mr. Stephens and his hotel:

Lawrence has no hotel which exceeds in popularity the favorite Windsor under the management of Mr. J. M. Stephens, who assumed the proprietorship last February, prior to which time he had been manager of the Palace Hotel. The Windsor is a three story building, containing 44 well furnished rooms and its location near the Southern depot, close to the principal business street, make it very convenient for the traveling public. The table is supplied with the best of the market affords to the most palatable manner, and the service is first-class. The terms are $1.50 per day, with the usual reductions for regular boarders. Mr. Stephens is an ideal mine host, and his estimable wife leave nothing undone which contributes to the comfort of guests. He is a Kentuckian, having removed here from Frankfort two years ago, and has made a host of friends in Lawrence.

A Talented Artist.

The Louisville Truth has this notice of a talented Kentucky boy: "One of the most talented young sketch artists in the East is Clifford K. Berryman, of Washington, who makes pictures and portraits for the Washington Post, as well as for Judge, Puck and other illustrated journals. His cartoons are all excellent, and some of his caricatures are surpassingly fine. Clifford Berryman is a Kentucky boy, a graduate of the Henry Academy at Versailles, and a member of the well-known Woodford county family of Berrymans—a family noted for its fine young gentlemen and beautiful girls. Clifford is but twenty-one years old, and his work is of a character that assures him a brilliant future. The first portrait he ever made was one of Cleveland and Hendricks. Senator Joe Blackburn showed it to the President as a bit of school-boy's work, and Mr. Cleveland was so much pleased that he said: "Send for that boy to come to Washington and I will find something for him to do here." Senator Blackburn promptly sent for his young friend, and he was given a good place in one of the apartments, in which he has since lived with credit and satisfaction. Meanwhile he has been following the bent of his genius, and is rapidly gaining recognition. He has two brothers in Louisville, Messrs. Threshly and Church Berryman."

Mr. Berryman is a half brother of Mrs. W. H. Posey and Miss Mollie Berryman, of this city, and his mother was a Miss Church, of this county.

Sudden Deaths.

Heart disease is by far the most frequent cause of sudden death, which in three out of four cases is unsuspected. The symptoms are not generally understood. These are: a habit of lying on the right side, short breath, pain or distress in side, back or shoulder, irregular pulse, swelling, weak and white at night, wind in stomach, swelling for ankles or dropsy, oppression, dry cough and smothering. Dr. Mitchell's illustrated book on Heart Disease free at J. W. Gayle's, who sells and guarantees Dr. Mitchell's unequalled New Heart Cure, and his Restorative Nervine, which cures nervousness, headache, sleeplessness, effects of drinking, etc. It contains no opiates.

Badly Burned.

Mr. Tom Willis, who works for O. R. Crutcher & Co., was preparing to clean out a stove-pipe Monday morning with some powder, and when he went to touch the fuse the powder went off, badly burning him about the face. He was taken to the residence of his father on Lewis street and is recovering, though he will be unable to work for three or four weeks.

ONE ENJOYS

New Board of Health.

The State Board of Health have appointed the following physicians as a County Board of Health for this county: Drs. G. F. Thompson and U. V. Williams, of this city, and Dr. Owen Robinson, of Bridgeport.

Geo. M. Walter, Messenger of the Adams Express Company, Baltimore, Md., says: "Having used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for the past ten years in my family, I wish to say that I consider it the best Cough Syrup I ever used. It has cured my children of croup several times and saved me many a doctor's bill."

Death of John Glanton.

Mr. John Glanton, oldest son of Mr. Daniel Glanton, died at the home of his parents, on Third street, Tuesday morning, after a lingering illness. His funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence.

Making a Charter.

Delegates from sixteen towns of the fifth class met in the grand jury room at the Court House Tuesday and were in session several days formulating a charter for towns of that class to be submitted to the Legislature.

Death of Mr. Hale.

Mr. J. D. A. Hale, of Mayfield, and brother of State Treasurer H. S. Hale, died at the above place Wednesday night. Mr. Hale was a well-known merchant of Western Kentucky. Treasurer Hale left Thursday morning to attend the funeral.

Dr. Hale's Household Ointment.

Is the finest remedy in the world. It absolutely cures catarrh. It cures Neuralgia and Rheumatism. Cures Piles like magic. Cures Salt Rheum in the most soothing manner. Cures Inflamed and Granulated Eyelids. Cures Coughs and Colds. Can be taken internally. A positive specific for Pneumonia. Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Chills, Sores of long standing. Corns and Bunions are cured quickly different from all else; superior to all else; it has no equal, 25 and 50c. boxes. Large size cheapest. Sold at Carpenter's South Side drug store. 5-ly

Song Service.

A large congregation attended the service of Song at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening. Prof. Wayland Graham presided at the organ in his usual artistic manner, and the singing was splendid, especially the solos of Mrs. W. L. Cannon and Mr. S. C. Bull, and had the music been rendered upon any other occasion both would have been heartily encored. The anthems by the full choir were also very fine.

A Chance to Make $500 or Better!

A slim chance, you fancy. Well, read and judge for yourself. You have Catarrh. $500 is offered for an incurable case of Catarrh in the head, by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Headache, obstruction of the nose, discharges falling into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in the ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once. Dr. Sage's Remedy cures the worst cases. Only 50 cents. Sold by druggists everywhere. $500 or a cure. Either would be acceptable.

The Thief Captured.

Forrest Cheatham, a colored convict, was arrested by Officers Mack Phythian and Henry Brown Monday morning about three o'clock at his home in Governor's alley. He is the man who has been committing the robberies in this city for the past two months, as much of the stolen property was found in his possession. Cheatham broke the show window of Mr. Chas. Steubenrauch, about two years ago, stole several bottles of whisky, and was sent to the penitentiary for one year.

If he is convicted of the recent robberies he goes up for life, as this will be his third term. Officer Phythian has been working on this case for the past two weeks and deserves much credit for his capture.

Cheatham had an examining trial on Tuesday before Judge B. G. Williams and was held over to the Circuit Court, in $500 bond, and failing to give the same was sent to jail.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trecoats are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "heap of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at PHIL. CARPENTER'S Drug Store.

Bank Officials Arrested.

Con. McCarty, Deputy United States Marshal, went to Lexington, Saturday evening with writs of arrest for ex-Cashier William Bright and ex-Teller Frank Gilmore, who were indicted last week by the grand jury in the United States Court for embezzling the funds of the Exchange National Bank.

Marshal McCarty served the writs on the gentlemen mentioned, but failed to find W. H. Cheppu, the book-maker, who was also indicted for aiding and abetting the offense. Bright gave bond in the sum of $1,500, and Gilmore in the sum of $1,500, to answer the charges at the next term of court. W. R. Milward and M. Karmann became Bright's sureties and L. H. Nottmangle and C. A. Jones went Gilmore's bond.

Death of Miss Sargent.

Miss Carrie Ella Sargent died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. R. C. Hieatt, near Polsgrove, in Henry county, on Sunday, after a lingering illness, aged 17 years. The remains were brought to this city Tuesday morning on the U. S. Snag boat Kentucky, the funeral took place from the Christian Church Tuesday afternoon and the body was laid to rest in the family burying ground near Bridgeport. Miss Sargent had been a great sufferer for ten years and death came to her as a sweet relief from pain. She had been a member of the Christian Church for many years and died in the full hope of rest beyond the tomb.

The deceased was a sister of Mr. Urban Sargent, of this city.

King's Royal Germetuer.

Pre-eminently the medicine of the century. Its phenomenal success as a seller and favorite with the people is the acknowledged wonder of the medicine world. Based upon the Germ theory of Diseases, it is unique, modern, and at once popular, commanding itself as a necessary household remedy. It advises best by its use. Specific for all Catarrhal diseases, a Nerve Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is without doubt the most reliable germ destroyer in existence, and to the extent that the germ theory is correct, King's Royal Germetuer is the remedy. It is no accident but is the result of fifteen years study of medical genius. For sale by Chapman & Williams.

A motion was made by Councilman Darnell to reduce the City Attorney's salary, but the Constitution prevented the cut.

The salaries of the city physician and street commissioner were not fixed, but were postponed until next meeting.

A communication was received from Mr. John E. Miles recommending "Dr. A. P. Williams" for subject to be placed on the charity list. So ordered.

The report of Street Commissioner Frazer was read and referred to street committee.

The reports of the City Marshal and Workhouse Keeper were read and approved.

No report were received from the City Clerk and Treasurer.

Accounts from various merchants for furnishing things for the city were allowed.

Mr. Shaw moved to go into an election of officers. Adopted and the following officers re-elected:

City Clerk—Chas. G. Payne. City Treasurer—Hugh R. Gaines.

The Gas Company's bill was referred to gas committee.

Assessor—After several ballots being taken it was formed that the deadlock couldn't be broken and the election was postponed until next meeting. The vote stood: Dr. A. Duval 4 and J. Wm. Graham 4.

The election of Street Commissioner was also postponed until next meeting.

Clock-keeper—Robt. Whitehead.

The Police and Fire Commissioners requested that the City Clerk be directed to pay officers Geo. and Percy Smith their salary up to Jan. 11th. Adopted, and the clerk was directed to draw his warrant for same.

The council then adjourned to meet Friday night, Jan. 15th.

Chicago Exposition.

Editor Roundabout: At a meeting of Garfield Club Saturday evening, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, In pursuance of a call made by the Commercial Club of Louisville for a commercial convention to assemble in that city January 20th and 21st, 1892, to adopt such measures as may be proper to have the State of Kentucky properly represented at the great Columbian Exposition, or World's Fair, which will be held in Chicago in 1893.

WITNESSES, As said exposition promises to be the greatest and most important one ever known in the world's history.

Resolved, By the Garfield Republican Club, of Frankfort, that it is the sense of this club that Kentucky should be fully represented in said exposition, setting forth to the world our advantages in soil, climate, water, minerals and productions.

Resolved, That one delegate be appointed to represent this club in said commercial convention, and that he be allowed railroad fare.

Resolved, That the present Legislature of Kentucky are respectfully requested to vote a suitable appropriation for this purpose.

Resolved, That the city press be requested to kindly publish these proceedings.

By order of Garfield Republican Club.

Born.

In Memoriam.

To the sorrowing mother and father of little Sallie Warts, who died in Louisville Saturday, January 5, 1892.

Dear father and mother—Sallie is gone. Her work is done; For she has knit more closely the hearts already one. By the little hands split for a father's—mother's kiss. When they taught the meaning of the words "communion bliss."

Common joy binds hearts to union. With the silent cords of love. Equal grief brings sweet communion—Thoughts of her who is above.

As the sun's first rays Lit the ethereal dawn. On invisible wings the angels Bore her unfettered spirit home; Still they love it just the same, Still they love it just the same. That's the lesson to the Savior's name.

As you hear the cold coils falling, And you know your child is there, Remember 'tis in better shape, Than when mother's gentle care.

Look up, father, tell me truly, Would you wish it back again, In this world so cold and cruel, Seemingly grief and pain?

No! you would not call that spirit From its home with God on high, To return but to inherit Want to each must come to die.

Then learn a lesson that is taught you, By your father and your God, When he chides, then he loves you, Bow the head, "pass under the rod."

By your sympathizing friend,
ARTHUR MILLETT.

A CHILDLESS HOME.

Smith and his wife have every luxury that money can buy, but there is one thing lacking to their happiness. Both are fond of children, but no little voices prattle, no little feet patter in their beautiful home. "I would give ten years of my life if I could have one healthy, living child of my own," Smith often says to himself. No woman can be the mother of healthy offspring unless she herself is in good health. If she suffers from female weakness, general debility, bearing-down pains and functional derangements, her physical condition is such that she cannot hope to have healthy children. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sovereign and guaranteed remedy for all these ailments. Worn-out, "run-down," feeble women, need Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It builds them up. It's a powerful, restorative tonic, or strength-giver—free from alcohol and injurious drugs. The entire system is renewed and invigorated. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, gives refreshing sleep, and restores flesh and strength. It's the only guaranteed medicine for women, sold by druggists.

Mother and Child are Doing Well.

Mrs. Brown was sick. Her friends said she would never get well. "What's the trouble?" "O, some kind of female weakness. The doctors have given up her case as hopeless. 'She may live for some time,' they say, 'but as for a cure, that is quite out of the question.'"
"I don't believe it!" said a woman, who heard the sad news—"I don't believe she's any worse off than I was, five years ago, from the same trouble, and I don't look very much like a dead woman, do I?" She certainly did not, with her red, plump cheeks, bright eyes, and 150 pounds of good healthy bone, blood and flesh. "I'm going to see her and tell her how she can get well." She did so. She advised Mrs. Brown to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Mrs. Brown took the advice, also the medicine which cures all kinds of delicate diseases so common among women, and—got well. That was two years ago. Last month she presented Mr. Brown with a ten pound son, and "mother and child are doing well."

Fun Near Farmdale.

Friday night Rose Hill, the hospitable home of Mrs. B. S. Hughes, was the scene of much merriment and gaiety—a party being given in honor of Mr. B. S. Hughes, Jr., who entertained quite a number of his friends. The house was brilliantly lighted and beautifully decorated. Miss Lucile Hughes looked regally beautiful in white silk, received the guests most cordially. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Flossie French, in black silk, and Miss Lulu Hughes, in black and white. Miss Cora Blake, more, gowned in black silk, en train, won all hearts by her sweet gracious manners, and Miss Lizzie Howlett, one of the society girls of Richmond, Va., and whose stately bearing and sweet manners were admired by all and soon won many friends. She was clad in a robe of deepest black. These young ladies, with the assistance of Cadet Ben Hughes, received the guests and were ever on the alert to promote the happiness of the gay throng. Dancing was indulged in until about twelve when the hospitable host appeared at the doorway and very amusingly announced supper. They repaired to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with mistletoe. Ices, fruits and the delicacies of the season were served.
Among the guests was the beautiful Miss Flossie French in black silk, Miss Lulu Hughes, with her sweet face and winning manners, was declared charming in a street costume. Miss Janie Dehoney, in blue Bedford cord was the center of an admiring group. Miss Sallie Theobald was bewitching in a Lord Fauntleroy costume. Miss Josephine Hughes, in light blue cashmere, was admired no little. Miss Lou Drane was thought lovely in cream. The charming Miss Nettie Walcutt was clad in black silk with natural flowers, and others well known in Frankfort society attended. Among the gallant beaux were the familiar faces of Messrs. Robert, Marvin and Will Averill and Ed. Bull, of Frankfort, Cadets Fry, Wilburn, Baylis, Crockett and Meadow.

The gay festivities were kept up until the "wee small" hours of the morning when the guests reluctantly departed declaring it to be one of the jolliest entertainments of the season.

Startling Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphonsus Hempling, of Butler, Pa., swears that when his son was speechless from St. Vitus dance Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nerve cure cured him. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 20 pounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vista, Ind., was cured of 40 or 50 convulsions a day, and much head ache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and fine book of marvelous cures free at J. W. Gayle's, who recommends and guarantees this unequalled remedy.
